‘...like a boiling soup of under and over reactions’

PD August 2023

These hand-made spirographic experiments and their underlying geometries reflect on the order produced by chaotic systems. Born from the four-part rotary pivots of shoulder, elbow, wrist, with the ultimate release from the finger-thumb pincer, these seemingly chaotic scribbles often coalesce to reveal tiny circular absences amongst curious accumulations of line. Constellations of absence and form evoke the cosmic while alluding to the self-similar relationships of other systems—be they of nature or culture.
